BURKE'S MILL church is raising money by subscription to purchase a new organ.

A FARMER'S horse sank to its shoulders in the mud in the 1st ward, Bellaire.

The public school close for Thanksgiving, and will not open until Monday.

The small boy hunted up his sled on Monday, and commenced the season's coasting.

The Intelligence of Monday says that counterfeit silver coin is plentiful about Wheeling.

EVERY skating rink has at least one person who puts on more airs than the band can play.

MORRISTOWN wants a public library, and the citizens are making efforts in that direction.

J. B. HOGE, Esq., has laid a new 8-foot sidewalk on the east side of his Main street premises.

The temperance folks of Bellaire will assist the Y. M. C. A. in supporting their new reading room.

The dispute in Wheeling about who is to be postmaster, is to be settled by a Democratic election.

BARNESVILLE boys eat peanuts at the promenade matches, much to the annoyance of every one.

It is said that owing to the stiffness in the money market, it is easier to borrow trouble now than money.

THE Red Men of Bellaire will give a grand war dance at the Niagara rink, on Friday evening of this week.

The only manufactory in Bellaire now idle, the Union window glass works, is expected to start up before New Year's.

J. W. KNOX, Esq., merchant and postmaster at Mt. Olivet, Warren p., has sold out his business to J. J. Murphy & Co.

THE output at the Bellaire steel works last week, was equal to 29,000 keels of nails, enough to keep five nail mills running.

JESSE R. FURNELL, of Bellaire, was a mason 32 years on Thursday, and on that evening was banquipped by the Bellaire Lodge.

A MEETING is to be held in Bellaire, looking to forming a company to operate the Union mines, on this side of the river, opposite Moundsville.

THE measles are abating at Hendrysburg, and the public schools which were closed for a month on account of the epidemic, re-opened on Monday.

A SUCCESSFUL surgical operation for actaract over the eye, was performed last week upon Isaac Murdaugh, of Morris town, by Wheeling physicians.

"HAVE used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for colds and coughs, and declare it a positive cure."—C. W. K. Wm. Kay, 270 Plymouth Avenue, Buffalo, New York.

REV. WEAVER will preach the Thanksgiving sermon at Morris town, and in the evening there will be an order supper for the benefit of the M. E. church.

"SQUIRE MAYES, whose occupation as a hymnical knot tyer is gone, is said to be writing a book, giving his experience with over 2,000 couples he has married.

JUST CAME IN—40 barrels of the best brands of flour in the State, second to none, at Osborne's grocery, flour, feed and produce store. 11-19-21

PITTSBURGH coal prospectors have leased large quantities of land near Martin's Ferry, in Peace and Colerain towns, and test wells are to go down in several places.

THE colored folks at Martin's Ferry are indignant because their school has been put into a dark and undesirable room. The town needs more school buildings.

GEO. ATKINSON, Esq., of Armstrong's Mills, has purchased property in Barnesville, and it is his intention next spring to erect a woolen factory and knitting establishment.

THE Barnesville Republican, in a long editorial, mostly in italics, claims the children's home who were taken away from the city of Harrisburg, and settled in the West, as being the best of the kind in the country.

GEO. H. R. WILSON, of the Woodfield Spirit, was presented with a gold headed cane, by admiring Monroe county friends previous to his departure to Fort Peck, Montana, to assume the duties of Indian Agent.

"My physicians said I could not live; my liver out of order; frequently vomited green mucus; stomach not retain food; but Doctor Blood Bitters cured me."—Mrs. Adelaide O'Brien, 23 Exchange St., Buffalo, N. Y.

At the recent meeting of the M. E. District Conference at Quaker City, it was decided by an unanimous vote that the next camp meeting should be conducted as the last one. So there will be no big Sunday next year.

The population of Martin's Ferry was increased on Friday, by a woman giving birth to four babies—three girls and one boy. As usual, says the Bellaire Independent, the family is poor and the father a worthless sort of character.

We have been advancing postage on a number of papers sent to subscribers abroad during the past year, who have not paid their subscription. We are willing to knock off the item of postage, if such persons will remit back subscription. Our subscribers at a distance are always generous in their welcome of the old Belmont CHRONICLE; we assure them that the CHRONICLE will extend a most hearty welcome to letters containing remittances for back dues. Let us hear from you, friends.

An Important Discovery.

The most important discovery is that which brings the most good to the greatest number; Dr. King's New Discovery for consumptive coughs and colds will preserve the health and save the lives of a priceless host to the afflicted; not only does it positively cure consumption, but coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, hoarseness and all affections of the throat, chest and lungs, yield at once to its wonderful curative powers; if you doubt this get a trial bottle free at Pattersons, drug store, St. Clairsville.

SOME excitement was occasioned in Cambridge last week, over the report of the grand jury. Capt. J. B. Ferguson, a prominent attorney, was indicted for embezzlement. The indictment alleges the embezzlement of $1,800 collected from the Ohio Valley Protective Insurance Co., for Mrs. Lucy B. Hering, widow. The Captain claims it is all a misunderstanding. He was arraigned, pled not guilty, and was recognized for trial in the sum of $1,000. The total work of the grand jury shows 26 indictments, 15 being for liquor violations, and 11 for other offenses. One indictment, against Jacob Ley, for embezzlement; we presume he is the man of that name who used to live here.

THIS fine weather for over a week, and they are good weather for over a week.

TOBACCO buyers in Noble and Monroe counties are paying from $3 to $5 per 100 pounds.

HON. JOHN A. BINGHAM is announced for a lecture on Japan, at New Philadelphia, one evening this week.

THE surviving members of the 116th O. V. I., will hold a reunion at Clarington, Monroe county, on January 1.

COMMUNION will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath. The Rev. J. K. McKallip, of Bellaire, will preach on Saturday at 2 p. m.

MISS MARY PELKY, a young lady of about 20 years of age, died at her home in Bellaire on Sunday, after less than a week's illness, from pneumonia.

The mother of Marshal McConaughy, of Bridgeport, on hearing of the attempted assassination of her son, was very ill with heart trouble, but is better.

THE K. of L. are boycotting H. Roemer, of Bellaire. They station a committee before his place of business, who request the people not to buy there.

The annual announcement of the Pittsburgh Post is published in this paper. While the Post is Democratic to the backbone, barring its politics it is an excellent paper.

JOS. A. CHANDLER, a young man of the Union township, was adjudged insane by the Probate court on Tuesday, and application made for his admission to the asylum at Athens.

THE Ohio Valley Trades Assembly, at meeting in Martin's Ferry, Sunday, appointed a committee to fix upon time and place, and engage speakers for a monster labor demonstration.

ELI BARNES, a resident of this township, near Fairpoint, died on Wednesday last week, from inflammation of the stomach, aged 55 years. His remains were interred in the M. E. cemetery of this place, on Friday.

GEORGE COOK, son-in-law of Joel Nichols, of this place, and a painter by trade, fell with a scaffold on Tuesday last week, while working on the residence of Hon. J. D. Taylor, at Cambridge. Both arm were severely lacerated.

THE Wheeling Council are considering a plan to transport the city's garbage to a point below the Bellaire bridge, so as to prevent annoyance to the people of Benwood and Bellaire. Should the proposed plan be adopted, Bellaire will have purer water.

WHEAT thieves are operating in some localities. They come into the bins from the outside and catch the wheat in bags and plug up the hole neatly. There's scarcely enough wheat in this section this season to make it an object for thieves to carry on the grain business.

HAZEN LODGE NO. 251, F. & A. M. Morris town, elected officers on Saturday night as follows: W. B. Kirk, W. M.; L. K. Fowler, S. W.; John Ritchey, J. W. H. W. Bigley, Treas.; Graves Gilbert, Sec'y; Jas. Wilson, S. D.; A. E. Gilbert, J. D.; Wm. Handy, Tyler. The Lodge delegates having a supper at their installation, about the 18th proximo.

Electric Light.

Points, Hangers, Brackets, and Chandeliers, at reduced prices, at West's drug store. Points will fit any bracket or chandelier. Also, at the same place, we have the latest styles of library hanging lamps and parlor stand lamps, very cheap. West's. 11-26-21

The Probate Judge issued marriage licenses during the week ending Tuesday, as follows:

Henry C. Jump and Mrs. Mary B. Deviney.

Quincy A. Herriek and Anna M. Mull.

Wm. Farmer and Ida M. Yocum.

Jesse B. Bethel and Rosa Sheppard.

Harry R. Harris and Lena E. Mallin.

Albert H. Burk and Lva Mary Degarmo.

Lincoln Lynn and Ethel E. Gordon.

The spelling book at the M. E. church on Friday evening, did not prove as entertaining as the pronouncing contest have been, yet considerable sport was had at some of the "bulls" in spelling.

Misses Mary Clark and Emma Woodway were the captains, and the contestants numbered over 20 each. J. A. Henderson, Esq., pronounced the words, and it was not until after 10 o'clock that the contest ended.
